

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The names of streets are given without the superfluous repetition of the word street.

PREFACE.

IN presenting the first number of the NEW HAVEN DIRECTORY to the public, the subscriber deems it necessary to offer some apology for its numerous imperfections. He has bestowed much assiduous attention in making up the catalogue of names, and has taxed the patience of his friends, as far as was consistent, in endeavouring to attain at something like correctness; yet many trifling, and perhaps some important errors may be detected. Serious obstacles in the way of making the first number of such a work complete, will present themselves to every mind, and it is thought unnecessary to give a catalogue of the difficulties which might be alleged in extenuation of our sins of omission and commission.

On the whole, with all its deficiencies and superfluities, the publisher believes it to be as nearly correct, as, under existing circumstances, could have been expected. By a careful attention to all the errors which may be pointed out during the year for which this number is intended, and the advantage which the compiler will have gained by having the houses numbered, and becoming more familiar with the city, he hopes in the Spring of '41 to be able to offer a volume which may be more emphatically styled a Directory of the City of New Haven.

Should it appear that any public institution or any conspicuous private establishment has been omitted, or should the patron or proprietor of such conceive that we have given it too cursory a notice—indulgence is craved, on the ground that the most careful are liable to mistakes; that the aim of the publisher has been to do “equal and exact justice” to all, and make the work as complete as circumstances would permit.

The Appendix falls far short of the original design, for which we offer no other excuse than a want of time to complete it; and on this we ground an apology to those who have furnished statistics, which do not appear.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE city holds its privileges and immunities under a charter which was granted by the Legislature in January, 1784, to which additions and amendments have been passed at various times.

The administration of the fiscal, prudential and municipal departments of the city, with the conduct, direction and government of its affairs is vested in a Mayor, four Aldermen and twenty Common Councilmen.

The board of Common Council (of which the Mayor is moderator) is composed of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen. The meetings of the board are held on the second Tuesday in each month. It has authority to make by-laws relative to markets, commerce, city jurors, streets, highways, nuisances, wharves, anchoring and mooring of vessels, shade trees—public or private, trespasses, public walks, buildings, chimneys, fires, produce, city watch, burials, public lights and lamps, the mode of taxation, and the infliction of penalties for the breach of such by-laws.—Such by-laws to be approved by the city in legal meeting assembled.

The annual meeting of the city is holden on the first Tuesday in June, when the Mayor, (who is also judge of the city court,) a Clerk, four Aldermen, (two of whom are designated as associate judges,) twenty Common Councilmen, two Sheriffs, a Treasurer, an Auditor, and a Collector of city taxes, are chosen by ballot.

The City Court has cognizance of all civil causes where the title of land is not concerned, and has the same power and authority and proceeds in the same manner in granting executions as the County Courts of this State, provided the cause of action arise within the limits, and one or both of the parties is a resident of the city; and an appeal from this court lies to the Superior Court.

The Mayor and Aldermen are severally possessed of the powers and authority which by law are given to a Justice of the Peace.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

THERE are few subjects pertaining to municipal economy that are more universally and intensely interesting than the prevention and extinguishment of Fires. The citizens of New Haven, with abundant cause for thankfulness, have, perhaps had sufficient experience of the desolating power of this master element, to admonish them of the necessity for great vigilance and carefulness in guarding against its future ravages. A dependence upon such casual and promiscuous crowds as usually rally at the alarm of fire is always precarious. Our citizens have not been unmindful of this fact. There are now eleven regularly organized companies belonging to the fire department, (not including the Fair Haven companies,) and we believe that the affairs of each are conducted with interest sufficient to insure their promptitude in all cases where their services are required. The members of these companies are by law exempt from military duty, and city poll tax.

GENERAL STATE HOSPITAL SOCIETY.

THIS Society was chartered in May, 1826, and an appropriation of $5,000, was made by the State to aid in carrying out its objects. Handsome sums have been contributed by individuals in different parts of the State, and the Medical Institution of Yale College pays a yearly stipend. Its building, which was finished in 1832, is situate at the head of Broad street, between Congress and Davenport Avenues. It consists of a center and two wings, whole length 180 feet, breadth in the center, 48 feet. There are about twenty rooms besides those in the basement, and a large room in the attic for operations. The building is of stone and stuccoed on the outside. In front of the center is four columns constructed after Grecian models.

LITERARY INSTITUTIONS.

NEW HAVEN has justly been denominated an "emporium of Literature," and in naming the various institutions which dot the whole extent of our city it is perhaps useless to occupy space in speaking of the facilities here enjoyed for literary attainments. There is no place on the face of the earth where nature and art, religion and science are more beatifully harmonized or exert a more benign influence than in this community—this oasis in New England—the fairest section of the most enlightened nation in the known world.

Yale College.—This is said to have been founded in 1700—and from that period to 1839 the number of graduates will not vary much from 5,000 or an average of about 37 per annum. There are at present 608 young men in this seminary. Commencement, 3d Wednesday in August. Vacations, from Commencement, 6 weeks; in January, 2 weeks; in May, 4 weeks.

Hopkins Grammar School.—This school was founded in 1654 by Edward Hopkins, Esq., who was for some time governor of Connecticut, and who died in London in 1687. Its concerns are managed by seven trustees, who are styled the "Committee of the Hopkins' Grammar School in New Haven." This committee is at present composed of Benjamin Silliman, James L. Kingsley, Samuel J. Hitchcock, Chauncey A. Goodrich, Roger S. Baldwin, Henry White and Wyllys Warner. Hawley Olmstead, A. M., Preceptor. Wyllys Warner, Secretary and Treasurer. The committee are erecting a commodious building at the corner of High and Wall streets.

Collegiate and Commercial School at Wooster Place.—This is a select boarding school for boys, conducted by Messrs. Stiles and Truman French, and was established by them in its present location in October, 1834. Its plan of instruction, according to its prospectus, embraces, after a careful course in elementary English branches, a thorough preparation either for admission to college or for commercial business.

Classical and Family Boarding School for Boys.—A. N. Skinner, Hillhouse Avenue north side.

FAIR HAVEN.

FAIR HAVEN is a flourishing village, situate on both sides of the river Quinipiac, about one and a half miles east of the city of New Haven, and contains about 1,200 inhabitants. That part of the village on the west side of the river is within the limits of New Haven, and that on the east side in the town of East Haven.

The public buildings are a Congregational Church erected in 1830, a Methodist Episcopal Church erected in 1835, and a Collegiate and Commercial Institute established in 1836, where all the higher branches of education are intended to be taught.

The oyster business, which is the leading occupation of the inhabitants, constantly increases. It commences in October and closes in April. The quantity caught in the village varies from 20,000 to 40,000 bushels annually, and at certain seasons of the year from 300 to 400 boats are engaged in taking them.

No definite estimate of the quantity of oysters brought here from the bays and coast of Virginia and Maryland and other places, has been made since the winter of 1835-6 during which time the amount was 139,841 bushels. In the summer of 1835 there were brought here 5,000 bushels of round clams, of which 2,000 bushels were caught in this vicinity. On the shores in the village it is estimated there are dug 4,000 bushels of long clams every season.

A large business is carried on in the manufacture of lime from oyster shells. It is calculated there may be made 200,000 bushels a year.

A large mercantile business is done in the village, and the business in general and population is constantly increasing; so that the village has deservedly the reputation of being one of the most prosperous in the State.

Fair Haven was formerly called Dragon, and the tradition is, that at the time of the first settlement of New Haven a particular sandy point about 40 rods below the bridge on the east side of the river was a place where large numbers of seals were accustomed to bask in the sun. At that time these animals were called Dragons—hence the name Dragon Point.

H. H. GROSS'
COMMERCIAL AND SCIENTIFIC INSTITUTE,
 No. 91 STATE STREET,

WHERE LADIES and GENTLEMEN can receive instruction, at any reasonable hours of the day and evening, in a superior and expeditious manner—

SCIENTIFIC PENMANSHIP

(WITHOUT RULING OR ARTIFICIAL LINES)

And PEN-MAKING, is systematically taught, and insured to all pupils of suitable age and capacity by regular attendance and strict attention. SIX LESSONS of ONE hour each will secure this invaluable accomplishment which no lady or gentleman should be without. Four extra lessons are given to those pupils who comply with the Rules and Terms. The hand is executed with great skill and elegance, and is as easily read as print.

PEN-MAKING taught separately when desired, and the Pens need only be written with to be properly estimated.

SPECIMENS of astonishing and permanent improvement and TESTIMONIALS from gentlemen of distinction exhibited on application.

STENOGRAPHY or SHORT-HAND WRITING,

So very useful and convenient to many ladies and gentlemen, can be thoroughly and practically attained in TEN ONE HOUR LESSONS. Taught only to classes.

COMMERCIAL BOOK-KEEPING,

By SINGLE and DOUBLE-ENTRY, including ARITHMETIC and CORRESPONDENCE, is taught on a new counting house plan. The pupil practically opens, conducts, closes and re-opens six sets of Books, while disposing of over 300 "business transactions," extending from the simplest to the most extensive and intricate that could possibly arise in any concern, individual or copartnership, and whether a retailing, or an inland and foreign business. Two sets by Single-entry and four by Double entry. A set includes a Cash Book, Bill Book, Invoice Book, Invoice Outward or Shipment Book, Sales Book, Account Sales Book, and Day Book, which are the Books of Original Entry; and the Journal, Leger and Account Current Book. The Journal only is omitted in Single-entry. These transactions become, each in succession, a subject of remark, of Study and of demonstration, until the pupil can record them accurately in the Books of Original entry, each of which books is separately Journalized in a manner greatly enhancing the value of the Journal, and as greatly abridging the amount of writing both in the Books of Original entry and Leger. It is impossible for the pupil to proceed without obtaining the answers arithmetically, therefore he becomes expert in every department of Commercial Calculations; also acquires facility and accuracy in executing Commercial Letters, Invoices, Accounts Current, Account Sales, Bills of Exchange, Protests, Policies of Insurance, Drafts, Promissory Notes, &c; a knowledge of the weights, measures and moneys of the principal commercial places in the world; and of the general routine of banking and custom house business. In short, the course of instruction comprehends all the information connected with the duties of the Merchant, the Accountant, and the Man of Business, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of a commercial community. Hence, his knowledge is rendered permanent as well as thorough and practical, it being founded upon reason as well as memory.

"Book-keeping is an Art which no condition of life can render useless, and which must contribute to the advancement of all who buy or sell—of all who wish to keep or improve their possessions—of all who desire to be rich, and all who desire to be wise. Let no man enter into business while he is ignorant of the method of regulating books."

Individuals and classes waited upon in institutions and families when desired. A limited number of YOUTH under 16 years of age received at any time by the Quarter, who can receive instruction in such other English branches as are included in a full and thorough, general and mercantile education. The Terms and all further information cheerfully communicated on application.

INDIAN EXPECTORANT.

NEW YORK, March 10, 1839.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir—I feel it my incumbent duty to say, having formerly been prostrated by means of the asthma, and (although relieved of that) my lungs have ever since been sensitive. Having recently taken a violent cold, I was severely afflicted with the influenza, so that a hard cough prevented my customary repose, and consumption seemed to be the inevitable consequence. But having seen a notice of the "Indian Expectorant," I applied to one of your agents, of whom I purchased two bottles, which restored me to perfect health.

Yours, very respectfully,

JOHN ELLIS,

*Late Pastor of the Baptist Church in Stamford, Conn.,
but now of New York City.*

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.—By a reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that this valuable Medicine is offered for sale in this city, by E. W. Bull, Agent. We esteem it a pleasure to be able to recommend this medicine, as the best calculated for the purpose of curing coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, and all affections of the lungs. From a long personal acquaintance with Dr. Jayne, we know that he is no quack, and his medicines are not nostrums of the modern cry-up, but are the result of his long experience as a practicing physician, and the expense of great labor.—Hartford Daily Review.

CARMINATIVE BALSAM.

This may certify that I have used Doctor Jayne's Carminative Balsam very extensively in Bowel Complaints, and have not the least hesitation in declaring it superior to any preparation that I have met with, for the relief of those diseases.

Physician to the Cumberland, N. J., Almshouse.

TONIC VERMIFUGE.

It not only destroys Worms, and invigorates the whole system, but it dissolves and carries off the superabundant slime or mucus, so prevalent in the stomach and bowels of children, more especially of those in bad health. This mucus forms the bed, or nest, in which worms produce their young; and by removing it—it is impossible for them to remain in the body.

Mr. Ferdinand Woodruff used two bottles of this Vermifuge for DYSPEPSIA, and in the course of two weeks discharged upwards of thirty pieces of Tape Worm, and was thereby perfectly cured of his Dyspepsia.

Josiah Thompson, near Salem, N. J., administered this Vermifuge to a child between two and three years old, and says that in a few days she discharged one hundred and twenty-seven large Worms.

SANATIVE PILLS.

These Pills are an excellent, mild and safe purge at all times, and are exceedingly useful in Dyspepsia and obstructions of the Liver. Persons taking them can eat and drink as usual without fear of injury; and, what is of infinitely more advantage, making the use of mercurial preparations so frequently used in derangements of the stomach and liver unnecessary.

ALIBERT'S HAIR TONIC.

HADBONFIELD, N. J., Feb. 12, 1839.

Doct. D. Jayne,—Sir—I take pleasure in informing you that the bottle of Alibert's Hair Tonic, which I obtained of you last October, has proved most satisfactory and successful. My hair had for a long time been exceedingly thin. But for two or three years past it had so fallen out that my head had become almost entirely bald. I was under the necessity of concealing the baldness by combing the hair on the sides over it. But now, after using about half of a bottle of the "Tonic," I have as luxuriant growth of hair as I ever had.

C. C. PARK, Pastor of the Baptist Church.

CHEESEMEN'S ARABIAN BALSAM.

This Balsam is an excellent remedy for all kinds of wounds, sores, burns, freezings, sprains, rheumatism, &c. and in cases of sore or broken breasts, and for corns and tooth ache it has no equal. Price, $1 00, per bottle—half bottles, 50 cts.

SALT RHEUM.

Sand's Remedy for Salt Rheum is warranted to cure, or the money will be refunded. Price, $1 00 per box.

ELIXER OF OPIUM.

Doct. McMunn's celebrated Elixer of Opium is decidedly superior to any such preparations as Laudanum, Paregoric, Morphine, &c. Price, 37½ cents per ounce bottle.

BUFFALO OIL.

Buffalo Oil, for the Hair. Price, 37½ cents per bottle.

VERBENA CREAM.

Verbena Cream, for shaving, no man will use any other article after trying this.

TO THE PUBLIC,—The subscriber would say that he is well acquainted with DAVID JAYNE, M. D. of Philadelphia, and knows him to be a respectable Physician and Druggist of that city—a gentleman in whom entire confidence may be placed. His medicines, which are advertised above, have been used in his own, extensive practice, in New Jersey, fifteen or twenty years, and were not put up as patent medicines until the demand for them became too great to be supplied in any other form. The subscriber has tested the efficacy of the Expectorant, in a case of severe affection of the Lungs, of years standing, in his own family, and therefore has great confidence in all of Dr. Jayne's preparations.

BECKWITH'S PILLS.

THESE Pills are extensively used, and are highly recommended. They have been used with advantage in Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Headache Heartburn, Sea Sickness, and in all BILIOUS DISEASES. Being entirely vegetable, they may be safely used, and are coming extensively into repute as a Family Medicine. To those who have once used these pills no words are necessary; but to others it may be observed that testimonials have been received from the Rt. Rev. Bishop Ives, D. D., of North Carolina, Rev. F. L. Hawks, of New York, and many other distinguished persons from all parts of the country. For sale by
